

AUTORIDAD DEL CANAL DE PANAMÁ

SHIP DUE

CRISTOBAL BALBOA

Name of vessel		Call Letters	Type: <input type="checkbox"/> Tanker
			<input type="checkbox"/> Cargo <input type="checkbox"/> Passenger
Agent	Customer Code	By	Date

- A. Panama Canal Ship No.
- B. 96-hour advance ETA
- Vessel for Transit or Local
- C. Draft of vessel, fore and aft. Tropical Fresh Water
- D. Changes in Vessel's name, Country of registry, structure or use of tanks since last arrival
- E. Whether docking at Balboa or Cristobal and reason therefore, i.e. cargo operations fuel, water, etc., listing amounts in tons in each case
- F. Nature and tonnage of deck cargo
- Exceed ACP Visibility Yes No
- G. 1. Is the vessel carrying any explosives or dangerous cargos in bulk? If yes, state technical name, quantity (metric tons), flash point of petroleum or chemical products, U.N. number, and IMO class and division for each dangerous cargo carried.
2. Petroleum or chemical tankers or bulk liquid carriers:
 In ballast? Yes No Inerted? Yes No
 Gas free? Yes Telex from Master indicating that cargo tanks(including slop) are safe for entry/hot work.
 No State type, flash point, U.N. number, name, of the last cargo(es)
3. Tanker & Bulk Carriers reporting "Golf: Negat" shall, in addition, state the technical names of allon-dangerous cargos carried.
- H. Is the vessel carrying any packaged dangerous goods other than explosives? If yes, state the IMO class and division, total quantity(metric tons), with each class
- I. (1) Radio Pratique Requested Yes No
 (2) Ports of call last 15
- (3) Communicable disease on board?
- (4) Deaths on board?
- (5) Number and port of disembarking passengers
- (6) Stowaways Yes No Number and origin
- (7) Number, kind and origin of animals on board
- (8) The country of origin of all meat, cargo or stores
- (9) Ports of call this voyage, infected by food and mouth disease or rinderpest
- (10) Deratting Certificate Date issued
- Port -

REMARKS: (Agent to indicate any information pertinent to arrival of this vessel.)

.....

.....

.....

Received by	Date
-------------	------